

The Linking Hand

Across Australia and New Zealand

December 2004

Our Motto

A life is not measured by the number of days, months
or years that it is lived,
but by the effect that life has on other people who touch it.
It is not measured by the length of its days or the height of its achievements,
but by the breadth of its influence.

Anonymous

Inside this issue

| | |
|------------------------------------|---------|
| Presidents Report | page 2 |
| From the Editors | page 3 |
| From the Secretary | page 4 |
| For the Kids | page 7 |
| Sam Priors Column | page 10 |
| Society News | page 12 |
| Practical Tips | page 14 |
| Paralympic Hero's Welcome Home | page 18 |
| Gills Story: Handing Over | page 19 |
| Living With Grief | page 21 |
| Medical - Obstructive Sleep Apnoea | page 22 |
| Medical - MPS Clinical Trials | page 25 |

MPS Society Donors

The MPS Society is grateful for all the assistance and generous support it continues to receive from all over Australia. The Society wishes to acknowledge the following recent supporters.

Jacaranda Fair (NSW)
Mrs N Spencer (NSW)
Lawson Women's Bowling Club (NSW)
Methodist Ladies College, Kew, (Victoria)
St Ursula's Interact Club, (Qld)
Hillary's Weight Watchers Club, (WA)
Flight Attendant Association of Australia
Fairlight Quality Meats (NSW)

